

McGee's Café and Bar

A long time local favorite, McGee's is now being visited by people from around the globe who travel here to enjoy authentic home Cajun cooking on the waters of the Atchafalaya.

Judged the best by people who know, we were awarded the "Best Boiled Crawfish" by the Tour de Crawfish 2004.

Our menu includes something for every taste, including Cajun staples such as alligator, crawfish etoufee, seafood gumbo, boiled crabs and fried shrimp.

Owner David Allemond has been a featured cook on Good Morning America, The Today Show, and The CBS Morning Show.

Our country store offers many artifacts from the Atchafalaya Basin, as well as souvenirs to document your trip to the heart of Cajun Country.

Check with us for special events, McGee's Café and Bar is a great place to listen to live music!
